

Before you were born, a bright angel carrying a white lily came to bless and seal you in purity's light. This angel was Archangel Gabriel. His angels of purity have been with you ever since. You can salute him each day by saying, "Hail, Gabriel, friend of old!"